

International Information Technology company

IIT Company (International Information Technology Company) is mainly focused on commercialization of IT products and services, design of hardware and software solutions.

We support and advise our customers during the decision-making phase, we pay attention to the needs of our customers and support on-site, we are a point of reference for our customers.

IIT company is specialized in the commercialization of the most complete range of IT products like: computers, components, software, peripherals and accessory for any kind of usage: for professionals, enthusiast, home user or advance gamers.

Agreements with the main IT distributor allow us to be always in line with the market trends and competitive.

We are specialized in the development of responsive web site, with an attractive look & feel, easy to navigate and modern.

We can help you on the restyling of your current web site, to be responsive and enhancing the functionality and usability.

We offer you professionalism, competence, experience, creativity and enthusiasm.